RBD Reality and Infrastructure Ltd...... Respondent

O2 Complainants are physically present in the hearing assisted Ld'Advocate Miss Pinky Shah who submitted the Vakalatnama on behalf of the complainants to represent them in the instant complaint hearing matter. Respondent is represented by Mr. Amit Kumar Kedia who appeared online in today's hearing. Complainants have already submitted their Affidavit along with their complaint in form M dated 27th February 2025. Authorized representative for respondent confirmed receipt of the complainant's Affidavit and as directed upon them by the Authority they have submitted their affidavit in opposition on 16th July,2025 received by this Authority on 18th July 2025. Respondents have questioned the sanctity of the complainants to file complaint against his client as defined under section 31 of Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act 2016 and appealled before this Authority to let the complainants define their eligibility to file a complaint under section 31 of the said Act as complainants. The learned Advocate for the Complainants submitted that the explanation of this Section 31 sub section(1) "person" shall include the association of allottees or any voluntary consumer association registered under any law for the time being in force and submits that the word "include" is not restrictive in defining person rather inclusive of Section 2(zg) sl. No.(vi) which includes person as "an association of person or a body of individuals whether incorporated or not" and thus concludes that the complainants in the instant complaint matter is eligible and legally entitled to file the complain before this Authority against the respondent. After hearing both the parties the authority is pleased to direct (a) Complainants are directed to file Supplementary Affidavit before this Authority and to the respondents having received the respondents	Sl.
