Property of myself and my three brothers and three sisters which we had inherited from our father Late Dinesh Chandra Banerjee and the said property was partitioned amongst all the co-sharers and a final decree was passed on compromise in Title Suit No.204 of 1983 by the 3rd Court of the Assistant District Judge at Alipore, South 24 Parganas.

3. That by virtue of the said final decree I was exclusively ^{allotted} the aforesaid 3 cottages, 9 chittacks, 41 sq.ft. of land TOGETHER WITH ^{Portion of} the aforesaid one-storied building standing thereon and I got possession of the said property mutually and amicably from my co-sharers, since the date of final decree passed on 11.08.1986. I have been possessing the said property exclusively as absolute owner thereof. The details of our joint property have been mentioned in the final decree passed in the said Title Suit No.204 of 1983.

4. That the property which has been exclusively allotted to me and of which I am now the absolute owner, has been fully described in the 'Schedule B' of the petition of compromise, on the basis of which final decree has been passed and which has been made part of the final decree.

5. That I now intend to take necessary steps for mutation of my name in the Assessment Register of Kolkata Municipal Corporation, as the said property is now
