Re: Project Kingslynn Residency

NPR No. 005164

Application Submission date 31/01/2026

Subject: Request for Personal Hearing in Connection with NPR No. 005164 — Repeated Queries on Submitted Documents

Respected Sir / Madam,

I, Prabir Roychowdhury, director of Sagnik Export (India) Private Limited, writing this letter with due respect in connection with our project registration application bearing NPR No. 005164, submitted on 31/01/2026 before your esteemed Authority for Project Registration.

Since the submission of our application, we have received repeated queries from the Officer/Authority on multiple occasions, to which we have duly responded each time by furnishing the required documents and clarifications within the stipulated time frame. We have made every sincere effort to comply with the requirements raised and have submitted all documents to the best of our understanding and ability.

However, we observe that similar queries continue to be raised on our application despite our repeated submissions, which has caused considerable delay in the processing of our application.

In light of the above, we humbly submit that if the documents and clarifications furnished by us are still not found to be satisfactory or do not meet the requirements of the Officer/Authority, we respectfully request that a date for PERSONAL HEARING be granted to us, so that we may appear before the concerned Officer/Authority and explain our submission in detail, address any outstanding concerns, and provide any further clarifications that the Officer/Authority may deem necessary.

We firmly believe that a personal hearing would enable us to resolve all pending queries efficiently and facilitate the timely processing of our application.

We assure the Authority of our fullest cooperation at all times and remain committed to complying with all applicable provisions under the Act.

Thanking you,

For M/s SAGNIK EXPORT (INDIA) PVT LTD
