khas possession and absolute property of the vendor. This has been suitably developed for residential purposes and has been divided into plots. The purchaser with a view to build a house thereon for residential purpose, proposed to the vendor to purchase the same at the sum of Rs. 2,316 = 00 (Rupees two thousand and three hundred sixteen) only excluding cost of registration and the vendor on receipt of the consideration of the sum of Rs. 2,316 = 00 (Rupees two thousand and three hundred sixteen) only executed this deed of sale in favour of the purchaser and declared that the purchaser and/or his heirs and/or successors in interest will be entitled to construct thereon not more than a three storied house or building and enjoy the same in absolute right with his heirs and/or successors in interest from the date of execution of this deed under the following terms and conditions duly accepted by the vendor and the purchaser :-

1. According to Municipal rules for construction purposes, the purchaser shall leave at least 4 (four) feet of land on all sides of his plot. The purchaser shall have to have the plan of his residential building approved by the vendor Sangha before construction and such approval will not be unreasonably withheld. Otherwise the vendor will be empowered to stop such unauthorised construction for which the purchaser will have no claim against the vendor.
2. The purchaser which includes his heirs and successors in interest cannot transfer or assign or lease the land purchased, before construction of the house, to anybody save and except with the written permission of the vendor. If the land is transferred or attempted to transfer before the construction of the house without such consent the vendor will be entitled to khas possession of the said land and such transfer will be void. If the purchaser under the pressure of circumstances beyond his control, namely financial difficulties etc. is compelled to sell the plot before construction he shall sell it to the vendor or its nominee at the purchased price together with incidental costs to be fixed by the vendor.
3. The vendor on demand from the purchaser will permit the purchaser at vendor's convenience to inspect the documents of title of the said plot of land herein purchased and take copies of them on payment of charges.
4. The purchaser which includes his heirs and/or his successors in interest, hereby covenants and / or agrees that the said plot of land herein purchased will be used for residential purposes only and no portion of it should be used for shop, factory and/or any other industry or business purpose except for selling vegetables or fruits in the garden of the said premises.
5. If hereinafter for the purpose of the welfare and further development of the Palli by the Vendor Sangha such as, drainage, roads, water supply etc., there is any further need of money the purchaser hereby agrees to pay such extra sum to the Vendor within three months of a written notice of demand.

6. The purchaser along with his/her heirs and successors in interest shall abide by the rules and regulations of the Vendor Sangha made or to be made from time to time.

7. Both the Vendor and the Purchaser along with their heirs and successors in interest will be bound by the above terms and conditions and the vendor on receipt of the consideration money has executed this deed of sale on this the eighth day of June one thousand nine hundred sixty seven in respect of the said plot of land in favour of the purchaser to be peacefully enjoyed by him in absolute right subject to the above terms and conditions.
