Handwritten text in Odia script, appearing to be an official letter or report. The text is written in a cursive style and covers most of the page. A checkmark is visible at the top center. A date stamp '5 FEB 1983' and the location 'HOWRAH' are visible near the top right. The text is somewhat difficult to decipher due to the handwriting and ink quality, but it appears to be a formal communication.

Handwritten text in Bengali script, oriented vertically on the page. The text is dense and appears to be a legal document or a detailed report. It includes various phrases and possibly names, though they are difficult to decipher due to the cursive style and some fading. There are some markings on the left side of the page, possibly indicating page numbers or sections.

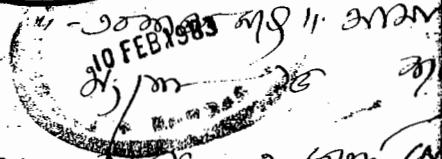

Handwritten text in Devanagari script, likely a letter or official document, written in a cursive style. The text is oriented vertically on the page.
