- (xii) Not to allow the demised premises to be used as a place of public worship or burial or cremation ground private or public or allow any shrine, Masjid, Church or Temple to be erected thereon.
  - (xiii) Not to allow to be used the demised premises and/or the structure thereon or any part thereof for any purpose other than setting up electronics industry. The Sub-Lessee shall not demolish or remove any building structure and fixture which may be built erected or fixed on the demised premises without the prior permission in writing of the Sub-Lessor.
  - (xiv) On the determination of the period of demise or earlier determination thereof the Sub-Lessee shall yield up peaceful vacant possession of the demised premises relinquishing all his interest therein in as good a condition as the same now is with all the buildings and structures as may be in existence at the time.
  - (xv) To allow any person authorised by the Sub-Lessor or its agents, at all reasonable times during the term, to enter upon the property and inspect the condition thereof and give or leave notice of any defect in such condition including repairing and cleaning the sewer line and manholes or to do any work in connection therewith ; and when such defect has been caused by any act or default on the part of the Sub-Lessee, its servants or agents, the Sub-Lessee is bound to make it good within 15 days after such notice has been given or left.
  - (xvi) After determination of the lease not to remove without the permission in writing of the Sub-Lessor anything which has been attached to earth of the demised property and keep all buildings material and fixtures therein good tenantable repair and condition.
  - (xvii) To perform all the covenants conditions and stipulations contained in the original Lease and its annexed schedules affecting the property hereby demised and to be observed and performed by the Sub-Lessor except payment of rent and premium and not to execute or perform any act deed or thing or suffer anything to the contrary whereby or by reason or means whereof the original Lease may be avoided or forfeited and to allow the Sub-Lessor to enter upon the demised premises for the purpose of inspection and performing any of such terms of agreement contained in the original Lease which may be necessary to prevent its forfeiture.
  - (xviii) To keep the Sub-Lessor indemnified against all actions, claims, demands and expenses on account of performance or non-performance by the Sub-Lessee of any of the terms conditions and stipulations of this Agreement.
- 3.1 (i) The Sub-Lessor hereby covenants with the Sub-Lessee that the Sub-Lessee observing and fulfilling all the terms and conditions herein on its part to be observed and performed shall hold the said demised premises for the period of demise without any interruption by the Sub-Lessor or any officer of Government.
- (ii) The Sub-Lessor hereby further covenants with the Sub-Lessee that the Sub-Lessee shall be provided with all basic infrastructural facilities in regard to roads, drain lines, storm water connection, water supply and electric connection at the peripheral roads (where such lines have been taken as per planning) bounding the demised premises/sites from which connection will be taken by the Lessees within their own premises at their own cost. Provided that no water supply and storm water connection can be taken by the Sub-Lessee from the peripheral roads without specific approval from the Sub-Lessor on the basis of separate agreement to be executed between the Sub-Lessor and the Sub-Lessee and for power supply the Sub-Lessee shall apply directly to West Bengal State Electricity Board with prior submission of a copy thereof to the Sub-Lessor for vetting purposes.

4. PROVIDED ALWAYS that if there be any breach of any of the terms and conditions and covenants herein on the part of the Sub-Lessee contained the Sub-Lessor shall call upon the Sub-Lessee to rectify and remedy the same within three months of the date of the receipt of such notice. If the required rectifications or remedial measures are not carried out within the given period, the Sub-Lessor shall have the right to re enter into possession of the demised premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and thereupon the lease shall forthwith stand determined, but not otherwise without prejudice to any right of the Sub-Lessor in respect of the antecedent breach.
5. The Sub-Lessee shall always observe the conditions of allotment detailed in the 2nd schedule hereunder written.
6. It is hereby agreed by the Sub-Lessor and Sub-Lessee that the opinion of the Managing Director (or his duly authorised Nominee) of the Sub-Lessor in the matter of breach of any of the covenants mentioned hereof on the part of Sub-Lessee would be final and binding and shall not be called into question by the Sub-Lessee in any manner whatsoever.
7. In the event in opinion of the said Managing Director of the Sub-Lessor or his duly authorised nominee the said demised premises or any portion thereof has been used for any purpose other than the running of electronic industry the Sub-Lessor will be entitled to appoint its own representatives as the Receiver and Manager of the demised premises and the Sub-Lessee hereby gives his consent that the Manager so appointed by the Sub-Lessor would be entitled to take and retain in his possession the demised land with all buildings and structures thereon, and all items of machinery and equipments, appliances found therein and to stop user of the said demised premises for any purpose other than running of electronic industry. The Sub-Lessee hereby consents that the Manager so appointed by the Sub-Lessor would be entitled to pull down any offending structure/building meant for carrying on non-electronic industry and to remove any machinery or plant or appliances in the demised premises for running of non-electronic industry and Sub-Lessee would raise no objection with regard thereto.
