quarantine, which is the first step in the process of identifying the source of infection.
Quarantine measures are designed to prevent the spread of disease by isolating individuals who may be infected or have been exposed to infection. Quarantine measures can include restrictions on travel, isolation of infected individuals, and monitoring of exposed individuals for symptoms of infection.

Quarantine measures are often used in combination with other public health measures such as vaccination and treatment to prevent the spread of disease.
