The image shows the interior of a flat, identified as Flat 4D. The room has light-colored walls and a floor with a subtle pattern. On the left, there is a window with a metal frame and a view of a building with a grid-like facade. To the right of the window, there is a doorway leading to another room. The doorway is framed by a dark wooden door that is slightly ajar, revealing a dark interior. A small yellow bag is visible on the floor near the doorway. The overall lighting is soft and even.
